

No. XIII.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Advances bona fide made to Agents intrusted with Goods. [10th October, 1866.]

ADVANCES TO AGENTS.

WHEREAS an Act of the Imperial Parliament was passed in the <sup>Preamble.</sup> fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the <sup>4 Geo. IV c. 83.</sup> Fourth intituled “An Act for the better protection of the property of Merchants and others who may hereafter enter into contracts or agreements in relation to goods wares or merchandises intrusted to Factors or Agents” And whereas by another Act of the Imperial Par- <sup>6 Geo. IV c. 24.</sup> liament passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth intituled “An Act to alter and amend an Act for the better protection of the property of Merchants and others who may hereafter enter into contracts or agreements in relation to goods wares and merchandise intrusted to Factors or Agents” the said first-mentioned Act was altered and amended in certain respects and validity is given under certain circumstances to contracts or agreements made with persons intrusted with and in possession of the documents of title to goods and merchandise and consignees making advances to persons abroad who are intrusted with any goods and merchandise are entitled under certain circumstances to a lien thereon but under the said Act and the present state of the law advances cannot safely be made upon goods or documents to persons known to have possession thereof as agents only And whereas by the said Act it is amongst other things further enacted that it shall be lawful to and for any person to contract with any agent intrusted with any goods or to whom the same may be consigned for the purchase of any such goods and to receive the same of and to pay for the same to such agent and such contract and payment shall be binding upon and good against the owner of such goods notwithstanding such person shall have notice that the person making such contract or on whose behalf such contract is made is an agent Provided such contract or payment be made in the usual and ordinary course of business and that such person shall not when such contract is entered into or payment made have notice that such agent is not authorized to sell the same or to receive the said purchase money And whereas advances on the security of goods and merchandise have become a usual and ordinary course of business and it is expedient and necessary that reasonable and safe facilities should be afforded thereto and that the same protection and validity should be extended to bona fide advances upon goods and merchandise as by the said recited Act is given to sales and that owners intrusting agents with the possession of goods and merchandise or of documents of title thereto should in all cases where such owners by the said recited Act or otherwise would be bound by a contract or agreement of sale be in like manner bound by any contract or agreement of pledge or lien for any advances bona fide made on the security thereof And whereas the said recited Act does not extend to protect exchanges of securities bona fide made and so much uncertainty exists in respect thereof that it is expedient to alter and amend the same and to extend the provisions thereof and to put the law on a clear and certain basis Be it therefore enacted enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

Advances to Agents.

Bona fide advances to persons intrusted with the possession of goods or documents of title though known to be agents protected.

1. That the said two Acts of the Imperial Parliament extended to and are in force in this Colony And that from and after the passing of this Act any agent who shall thereafter be intrusted with the possession of goods or of the documents of title to goods shall be deemed and taken to be owner of such goods and documents so far as to give validity to any contract or agreement by way of pledge lien or security boná fide made by any person with such agent so intrusted as aforesaid as well for any original loan advance or payment made upon the security of such goods or documents as also for any further or continuing advance in respect thereof and such contract or agreement shall be binding upon and good against the owner of such goods and all other persons interested therein notwithstanding the person claiming such pledge or lien may have had notice that the person with whom such contract or agreement is made is only an agent.

Bona fide deposits in exchange protected.

2. And be it enacted that where any such contract or agreement for pledge lien or security shall be made in consideration of the delivery or transfer to such agent of any other goods or merchandise or document of title or negotiable security upon which the person so delivering up the same had at the time a valid and available lien and security for or in respect of a previous advance by virtue of some contract or agreement made with such agent such contract and agreement if boná fide on the part of the person with whom the same may be made shall be deemed to be a contract made in consideration of an advance within the true intent and meaning of this Act and shall be as valid and effectual to all intents and purposes and to the same extent as if the consideration for the same had been a boná fide present advance of money Provided always that the lien acquired under such last-mentioned contract or agreement upon the goods or documents deposited in exchange shall not exceed the value at the time of the goods and merchandise which or the documents of title to which or the negotiable security which shall be delivered up and exchanged.
