

An Act to adopt and declare valid an amended alignment of Church-street in the Borough of Parramatta, and to authorize the Council of the said Borough to erect a public fountain and other buildings on land now part of said street, and for the other purposes hereinafter mentioned. [23rd July, 1888.]

PARRAMATTA
CHURCH-STREET
AMENDED
ALIGNMENT.

WHEREAS the existing alignment of Church-street within the Borough of Parramatta between Macquarie-street and Darcy-street, and also in the vicinity of Albert-street is defective and inconvenient by reason of the narrowness thereof, the obstructive angles therein, and the fixing of the public fountain so as to occupy the building line of the said Church-street; and it is expedient to adopt and declare valid such re-alignment thereof as is hereinafter set forth: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. After the passing of this Act the foot-ways and carriage-ways in Church-street from Macquarie-street southwards to the southern boundary of the Municipal Council Chambers premises, and from Harold-street to Albert-street within the Borough of Parramatta aforesaid, shall be in the places and of the dimensions shown on the plan of the said portions respectively of the said street numbered six hundred and forty-nine, and now deposited in the Lands Titles' Office, Sydney.

2. After the passing of this Act the piece of land situate at the intersection of Church-street and Macquarie-street aforesaid, containing ten and a quarter perches, granted to the said Council and its successors as a site for a public fountain, by Crown grant dated on or about the thirteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, under the hand of His Excellency Governor Sir Hercules Robinson, and registered volume two hundred and forty-one folio one hundred and nine, shall be deemed to be and shall become part of Church-street aforesaid, anything in the said grant to the contrary notwithstanding, and the piece of land shown and delineated on the said plan and thereon coloured blue, shall be used and set apart as a site for a public fountain and public buildings in the stead of the land comprised in the said grant.

3. After the passing of this Act the carriage and foot-ways as on the said plan shown, except thereout the said portion coloured blue, shall for all purposes whatsoever be deemed to have been duly aligned and set out under the authority of the Act second Victoria, number two and the other laws in force within the Colony relating to the alignment of streets within the said Town or Borough of Parramatta.

4. An office tracing or copy of the said plan and certified under the hand of the Registrar-General of the said Colony for the time being shall, in all cases whatsoever at law or in equity be sufficient and conclusive evidence of the alignment effectuated by this Act without the production of the original plan; and such Registrar-General or his Deputy shall furnish to any person requiring the same such certified copies or tracings as aforesaid whenever required, at the cost of ten shillings each.

5. After the passing of this Act the Council of the Borough of Parramatta and its successors shall have the whole control and management of the said piece of land coloured blue on the said plan, hereby appointed appointed to be the new site for a public fountain, and may out of the general revenue or other available funds of the said Borough, either remove to the said site the public fountain now on the land so granted as aforesaid, or may erect thereon another fountain in lieu thereof, and a memorial building or structure in connection with the celebration of the Centenary of the Colony in the said Borough, or such other building or buildings as they shall think fit.

Power to make by-laws.

6. It shall be lawful for the Council of the said Borough and its successors from time to time to make by-laws, rules, and regulations for the use, government, and management of the said land hereby set apart as a site for a public fountain and coloured blue on the said alignment plan, and the fountain and buildings thereon, and in any such by-laws to fix maximum and minimum penalties for the neglect or breach thereof; and such by-laws shall have the force of law when confirmed by the Governor and published in the Government Gazette in manner provided in regard to Municipal by-laws by the "Municipalities Act of 1867," or other the Acts in force for the time being in the said Colony in that behalf, but subject to the like conditions and qualifications as contained in the said Act or Acts respectively: Provided always that no such penalty shall exceed fifty pounds.

Proof of by-laws.

7. The production of the Government Gazette containing such by-laws shall be conclusive evidence of such by-laws in any proceedings at law or in equity whatsoever.

Short title.

8. This Act may be cited as the "Parramatta Church-street Amended Alignment Act of 1888."
