

No. XVII.

AUBURN RAILWAY
LEVEL CROSSING
CLOSING.

An Act to enable the Railway Commissioners of New South Wales to close a certain Level Crossing near Auburn Railway Station. [30th September, 1889.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Closing of Level
Crossing near Auburn Station.

1. The Railway Commissioners of New South Wales are hereby authorized and empowered to close the Level Crossing over the Railway line between Sydney and Parramatta, situate two hundred and ninety-six feet, or thereabout, westerly from the western end of the Down Platform at Auburn Railway Station, and distant eleven miles forty-two chains and sixty-two links from Redfern Railway Station; which said Crossing was provided to give access across the Railway line between the North Parade and the South Parade at Auburn. And from and after the publication of a notification in the Gazette by the said Commissioners that the said Crossing has been closed under the authority of this Act, all rights of way on and over such Crossing shall be extinguished.
