

Public Works Acts Further Amendment.

Act No. 6, 1897.

PUBLIC WORKS ACTS
FURTHER AMENDMENT.

An Act to amend Part I of the Public Works Act of 1888, the Public Works Act Amendment Act of 1889, and the Public Works (Committees' Remuneration) Act of 1889. [30th June, 1897.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the "Public Works Acts Further Amendment Act of 1897."

Committee to consist of seven members.

2. Section three of Part I of the Public Works Act of 1888 is hereby amended so that the Parliamentary Standing Committee on Public Works shall consist of seven persons instead of thirteen, three of such persons to be appointed, in manner provided by the said third section of the said Act, and by section two of the Public Works Act Amendment Act of 1889 from Members of the Legislative Council, and four, in like manner, from Members of the Legislative Assembly.

Quorum to be three.

3. Subsection (II) of section five of the Public Works Act of 1888, and section four of the Public Works Act Amendment Act of 1889 are hereby amended, so that the quorum of the Committee shall in all cases be three.

Fees.

4. The Public Works (Committees' Remuneration) Act of 1889 is hereby amended so that the Chairman of the Committee shall not receive more than three guineas, and so that each other Member of the Committee shall not receive more than two guineas for each day's attendance at a summoned meeting of a Committee at which a quorum shall be present, or at any inspection under section five of the said Act.

Not to apply to present Committee.

5. This Act shall not apply to the Parliamentary Standing Committee on Public Works at present existing.
