

Act No. 57, 1900.

An Act to provide for the appointment as permanent officers of the Public Service of persons temporarily employed in the office of the Commissioners of Taxation, and to amend the Public Service Act of 1895. [30th November, 1900.]

PUBLIC SERVICE (TAXATION OFFICERS).

WHEREAS a large number of persons were temporarily employed Preamble. to carry out the work authorised and required by the Land and Income Tax Assessment Act of 1895 and the Acts amending the same:
And whereas a staff of officers will be required to be permanently maintained to perform the duties of the aforesaid persons: And whereas it is desirable that preference should be given in forming the said staff to persons who have gained experience of the duties to be performed:
And whereas the aforesaid persons are not eligible to be graded as permanent officers: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act shall be construed with the Public Service Act of Short title.
1895 and Acts amending the same, and may be cited as the "Public Service (Taxation Officers) Act, 1900."

Boundary-street.

Appointment of persons temporarily employed by Commissioners of Taxation.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Public Service Act of 1895, the Governor, on the recommendation of the Board, may appoint as a permanent officer any person temporarily employed at the commencement of this Act in the office of, and recommended to be so appointed by, the Commissioners of Taxation appointed under the Land and Income Tax Assessment Act of 1895.
