

Act No. 12, 1906.

An Act to abolish fees in primary and superior public schools; to amend the Public Instruction Act of 1880; and for other purposes incidental thereto. [5th October, 1906.] FREE EDUCATION.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Free Education Act, 1906," and shall be construed with the Public Instruction Act of 1880, hereinafter called the Principal Act. Short title.

(2) This Act shall come into operation on the Monday immediately following the day on which it receives the Royal assent. Commencement.

2. On and after the coming into operation of this Act, education in primary and superior public schools shall be free, and no fees shall be chargeable for the same, and section eleven of the Principal Act is hereby repealed accordingly, and section twenty-seven of the same Act is amended by the omission of the words "and for the higher classes in superior public schools." Education in primary and superior public schools to be free.
