

Act No. 5, 1906.

STOCK
REGISTRATION TRANSFER.

An Act to provide for the transfer of inscribed stock, debentures, and Treasury bills of the New South Wales Government from London registers to Sydney registers; and for other purposes incidental thereto. [22nd August, 1906.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the "Stock Registration Transfer Act, 1906."

Regulations providing for transfer.

2. (1) The Governor may make regulations for enabling the holders of any inscribed stock, debentures, or Treasury bills of the New South Wales Government, which are redeemable in London, to have

---

Amendments Incorporation.

---

have such stock, debentures, or bills transferred from the registers kept in London, to registers to be opened and kept in the Treasury at Sydney, and for prescribing the fees chargeable for any such transfers.

(2) Such regulations shall have the force of law when published in the Gazette, but not sooner or otherwise.

3. After the registration in Sydney of any such stock, debentures, or bills so transferred, such stock, debentures, or bills shall at maturity be redeemable in Sydney, and all interest falling due thereon after the date of such registration shall be payable in Sydney, notwithstanding anything to the contrary printed upon the debentures, bills, or upon any interest coupons relating thereto. Effect of transfer.