such office in all respects as if he had been appointed under this section and shall be an officer within the meaning of the Public Service Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts.

(b) All officers of the board other than the secretary holding office immediately before the commencement of the Ambulance Transport Service (Amendment) Act, 1951, shall continue to hold such office in all respects as if they had been appointed or employed under this section and shall be deemed to be employees within the meaning of the Public Service Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts.

Sec. 13.
(District committees.)

- (b) (i) by omitting from section thirteen the word "annually" and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "triennially";
- (ii) by inserting at the end of the same section the following paragraph:—

The first triennial election of a district committee established before the commencement of the Ambulance Transport Service (Amendment) Act, 1951, shall be held upon the day upon which the annual election of such district committee would, but for the provisions of the said Act, have been held.

Sec. 14A.
(Contributors.)

- (c) (i) by inserting next after paragraph two of section 14A the following new paragraph:—

(2A) Any member of an industrial contribution scheme who in any year between the first day of July and the thirtieth day of June next following has paid by way of contribution to such scheme an amount of not less than ten shillings and who in the prescribed manner elects to be a contributor.

Elections shall be made prior to the last-mentioned date and any member so electing shall be deemed to be a contributor as on and from the first day of July next following the lastmentioned date and for a period of twelve months thereafter.

(ii)

- (ii) by inserting at the end of the same section No. 22, 1951.
the following paragraph:—

For the purposes of paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this section sums contributed shall not include the contributions of members of any industrial contribution scheme who are contributors pursuant to paragraph (2A) of this section.
