ACT.

---

Act No. 24, 1957.

An Act to enable a certain Joint Committee of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly to function during the prorogation of Parliament and during the third session of the thirty-eighth Parliament; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 30th April, 1957.]

Elizabeth II,
No. 24, 1957.

BE

Parliamentary Joint Committee Enabling Act.

No. 24, 1957.

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the "Parliamentary Joint Committee Enabling Act, 1957".

Power to function for an extended period.

2. (1) It is hereby declared that the Parliamentary Joint Committee (a resolution for the appointment of which was agreed to by the Legislative Assembly on the twentieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-six, and concurred in by the Legislative Council on the nineteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-six), appointed, inter alia, to review such aspects of the working of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution as the Committee considers it can most profitably consider, may—

- (a) lawfully sit during the period commencing on the termination of the second session of the thirty-eighth Parliament and ending on the termination of the third session of that Parliament; and
- (b) lawfully do during that period all such things as it might lawfully have done had the second session of that Parliament continued throughout that period.

(2) Nothing in subsection one of this section shall affect or alter any power of the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly, and it is hereby declared that the operation of that subsection is subject to any such power and the exercise thereof.
