

PARLIAMENTARY JOINT COMMITTEE ENABLING ACT.

Act No. 24, 1964.

Elizabeth II, No. 24, 1964 An Act to enable a certain Joint Committee of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly to function during the prorogation of Parliament and during the third session of the fortieth Parliament; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 12th May, 1964.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as the "Parliamentary Joint Committee Enabling Act, 1964".

Power to function for an extended period. 2. (1) It is hereby declared that the Parliamentary Joint Committee (a resolution for the appointment of which was, on the tenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-three, agreed to by the Legislative Assembly and concurred in by the Legislative Council), appointed to investigate the coal-mining industry in New South Wales and certain other matters, may—

- (a) lawfully sit during the period commencing on the termination of the second session of the fortieth Parliament and ending on the termination of the third session of that Parliament; and
- (b) lawfully do during that period all such things as it might lawfully have done had the second session of that Parliament continued throughout that period.

(2) Nothing in subsection one of this section shall affect or alter any power of the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly, and it is hereby declared that the operation of that subsection is subject to any such power and the exercise thereof.
