Power to enter and carry out tests, etc.

6. (1) An inspector may—
- (a) at all reasonable times enter and remain in or on—
 - (i) a registered plant;
 - (ii) any other premises if he has reasonable cause to suspect that acts done in or on the premises constitute the whole or any part of the process; or
 - (iii) any vehicle if he has reasonable cause to suspect that the vehicle is used for the carriage of poultry to or from a plant or the carriage of poultry meat for sale;
 - (b) detain any such vehicle for such time as is reasonably necessary for him to exercise any function under this Act;
 - (c) inspect any such plant, premises or vehicle and all appurtenances and appliances therein;
 - (d) inspect any poultry or poultry meat in or on any such plant, premises or vehicle;
 - (e) open any package found in or on any such plant, premises or vehicle, being a package that he suspects on reasonable grounds to contain any poultry or poultry meat;
 - (f) carry out, in or on any such plant, premises or vehicle, any test, inspection or investigation in order to ascertain whether the provisions of this Act have been or are being complied with;

AMENDMENTS TO THE PRINCIPAL ACT RELATING TO

- (g) mark (in such manner as to him seems fit) any poultry or poultry meat found in or on any such plant, premises or vehicle for the purpose of identifying the poultry or poultry meat;
- (h) seize and retain any poultry or poultry meat found in or on any such plant, premises or vehicle that, in his opinion, is necessary or expedient to be seized for the purpose of carrying out any test, inspection or investigation or for enforcing the provisions of this Act;
- (i) search and inspect any such plant, premises or vehicle for the presence of, and examine, any accounts, records, books or documents relating to the carrying on of the whole or any part of the process;
- (j) take copies of, or extracts or notes from, any such accounts, records, books or documents; and
- (k) require any person found in or on any such plant, premises or vehicle to produce any such accounts, records, books or documents in his possession or under his control.

(2) A person who fails to comply with any requirement made under subsection (1) (k) shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Inspector's power to give directions.

6A. (1) An inspector may, at any plant, give such directions as he thinks proper—

- (a) to ensure the hygienic and humane carrying on of the whole or any part of the process; and

Poultry Processing (Amendment).

SCHEDULE 1—*continued.*AMENDMENTS TO THE PRINCIPAL ACT RELATING TO

(b) to ensure that any weight gain of carcasses occurring in consequence of the carrying on of the whole or any part of the process does not exceed the prescribed percentage.

(2) A direction referred to in subsection (1) that requires the installation or alteration of any machinery or equipment has no force or effect unless the direction is in writing and is given, with the approval of the Chief, Division of Animal Health, to the operator of the plant in which the machinery or equipment is or is to be installed or located or in which the equipment is or is to be used.

(3) A direction referred to in subsection (1) that does not require the installation or alteration of any machinery or equipment, but compliance with which would result in the cessation of, or a substantial reduction in, the production of poultry meat at the plant in relation to which the direction is given, has no force or effect unless the direction—

(a) is in writing; and

(b) is given to—

(i) the operator of that plant; or

(ii) the person apparently in charge of the production of poultry meat at that plant.

(4) Without affecting the generality of subsection (1) or any other provision of this Act, an inspector may give any directions as are prescribed in respect of any plant.

(5) A person who fails to comply with a direction given in accordance with this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $1,000.

Condemning of poultry or poultry meat.

6B. (1) An inspector may condemn, as unfit for human consumption, any poultry or poultry meat that is in or on any plant.

(2) An inspector may direct that any poultry or poultry meat that is in or on any plant be treated, in a specified manner and within a specified time, for the purpose of making or keeping it fit for human consumption.

(3) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), where a direction under subsection (2) is not complied with, an inspector may condemn the poultry or poultry meat as unfit for human consumption.

(4) Where any poultry or poultry meat is condemned under subsection (1) or (3) as unfit for human consumption, an inspector may mark (in such manner as to him seems fit) the poultry or poultry meat for the purpose of identification and, if he thinks fit, seize the poultry or poultry meat and cause it to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of.

No compensation for seizure.

6c. Any poultry or poultry meat seized under section 6 (1) (h) or 6B (4) shall become the absolute property of the Crown and no compensation shall be payable in respect of the seizure.

- (d) premises referred to in section 6D (1) (a) on or in which the inspector has found accounts, records, books or documents referred to in section 6D (1) (a), to answer questions relating to the observance of this Act or to any matter in connection with the exercise of the inspector's functions or the execution of this Act.

(2) A person who, when required to answer a question under subsection (1)—

- (a) except as provided by subsection (3), refuses or fails to answer the question; or
(b) makes any answer which is false or misleading in a material particular,

shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

(3) A person is not required to answer any question asked of him under subsection (1) unless he has first been informed by the inspector asking the question that he is required to answer the question by virtue of this section.

(4) A person may not refuse to answer a question asked of him under subsection (1) on the ground that his so doing might tend to incriminate him or make him liable to any penalty.

(5) Any answer given by a person pursuant to a requirement made under subsection (1) after he has been informed in the manner set forth in subsection (3) shall not be admissible in evidence in any proceedings, civil or criminal, against him, other than in proceedings under subsection (2).

(6) Nothing in this section affects the admissibility in evidence of an answer voluntarily given by a person to a question asked by an inspector but which the inspector did not require that person to answer under this section.

Proof of identity.

6F. An inspector, in exercising at any premises or in relation to any vehicle any function under this Act, shall, if so requested by any person apparently in charge of—

- (a) the premises or vehicle; or
- (b) any act carried out in or on the premises, being an act constituting part of the process, produce his certificate of identification to the person.

Assistance.

6G. An inspector may be accompanied by and use such persons as he considers necessary to assist him in the exercise of his functions under this Act.

Obstructing inspector.

6H. A person who delays, obstructs, hinders or impedes—

- (a) an inspector in the exercise of his functions under this Act; or
- (b) a person assisting an inspector in the exercise of his functions under this Act, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.
