BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. In the construction of works authorised by or under any statute it shall be lawful to blast with gunpowder or other explosive any rock, earth, or other material; but any enactments relating to the payment of satisfaction or compensation for injuries or damage occasioned by the construction of such works shall apply in respect of injuries or damage so occasioned by blasting as aforesaid.

Rocks may be blasted in the construction of works authorised by statute.

2. This Act may be cited as the "Blasting Authorisation Act, Short title. 1898."
