- (b) to authorise community advancement societies to subdivide land and to sell or let it to its members or other societies (clause 2 (1) (c));
- (c) to ensure that a community advancement society can not only promote and assist clubs for education, recreation or other community purpose but also carry on such clubs (clause 2 (1) (c));
- (d) to simplify the reports to be made to Parliament with respect to undertakings by the Colonial Treasurer to indemnify building societies against loss in certain circumstances (clause 2 (1) (d));
- (e) to clarify the provisions relating to advances by societies on second mortgage (clause 2 (1) (e));
- (f) to alter the provisions dealing with the persons to whom a small loans society may make a loan and the total amount that may be borrowed from such a society (clause 2 (1) (f) (g));
- (g) to permit a small loans society to become a member of an association of building societies (clause 2 (1) (h));
- (h) to permit a person under 21 years of age to be a member of any society if its rules so provide (clause 2 (1) (i));
- (i) to alter the provisions relating to the formation and registration of a society (clause 2 (1) (j));
- (j) to authorise a society, other than a terminating building society, to convert all or any of its paid-up shares into stock and re-convert that stock into paid-up shares (clause 2 (1) (k));
- (k) to authorise a permanent building society to declare a greater rate of dividend in respect of paid-up shares than in respect of shares that are not paid-up (clause 2 (1) (k));
- (l) to increase the rate of dividend that may be paid by a society from 6 per cent. to 8 per cent. (clause 2 (1) (k));
- (m) to provide that a proposal by a society requiring members to take or subscribe for additional shares is binding on all persons who become members before the total number of shares to be issued under the proposal have been issued (clause 2 (1) (l));
- (n) to allow a society to apply more than 10 per cent. of the surplus arising in any year from the business of the society to any charitable purpose or for promoting co-operation or any community advancement if the Advisory Council so approves (clause 2 (1) (m));

- (o) where certain sporting or recreational clubs become community advancement societies, to exempt from stamp duty instruments transferring property from the clubs to the societies (clause 2 (1) (n));
- (p) to bring up to date the provisions relating to the registration of mortgages or charges created by societies, to apply to societies the provisions of Part XII of the Companies Act, 1936, relating to receivers and managers, and to ensure that references in any of those provisions to the Registrar-General shall be construed as references to the registrar of co-operative societies (clause 2 (1) (o));
- (q) to alter the provisions fixing the maximum amount that a society may raise by way of loan without the authority of a special resolution (clause 2 (1) (p));
- (r) to alter the provisions specifying the companies in whose shares a society may invest its funds (clause 2 (1) (q));
- (s) to require a society to keep a register of stock and to keep it open for inspection (clause 2 (1) (r) (s));
- (t) to require a society to transmit to the registrar a full list of the members of the society only where the registrar so requests (clause 2 (1) (t));
- (u) to alter the provisions relating to the registration of alterations of rules (clause 2 (1) (u));
- (v) to alter the provisions relating to the election of directors (clause 2 (1) (v));
- (w) to add to the list of societies to the boards of which the Governor may appoint a director (clause 2 (1) (w));
- (x) to add to the list of societies the directors or secretary of which may be dismissed after inquiry (clause 2 (1) (x));
- (y) to alter the provisions relating to the accounts of societies and the auditing of those accounts (clause 2 (1) (y));
- (z) to extend the provisions allowing a society to specify its financial year in its rules (clause 2 (1) (z));
- (aa) to alter the provisions relating to the settlement of disputes by the registrar (clause 2 (1) (aa));
- (bb) to alter the provisions relating to the winding-up and dissolution of societies (clause 2 (1) (bb));
- (cc) by omitting section 94 (clause 2 (1) (cc));
- (dd) by providing that judicial notice shall be taken of the signature and seal of the deputy registrar (clause 2 (1) (dd));
- (ee) to prohibit certain acts in relation to loans from building societies (clause 2 (1) (ee));
- (ff) to extend the power to make regulations (clause 2 (1) (ff));
- (gg) to vary certain agreements, the variation being consequential on the enactment of the Co-operation (Amendment) Act, 1954;
- (hh) to validate certain matters and to transfer certain instruments from the Registrar-General to the registrar of co-operative societies, the validation and transfer arising out of the amendments referred to in paragraph (p) above.

[CONFIDENTIAL]
(Rough Draft for Consideration Only.)

No. , 1958.

A BILL

To amend the law relating to co-operation; for that purpose to amend the Co-operation, Community Settlement, and Credit Act, 1923, and certain other Acts in certain respects; and for purposes connected therewith.

Enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Co-operation (Amendment) Act, 1958". Short title and citation.

(e) by omitting subsection one of section eighteen and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection:—

Sec. 18.
(Second mortgage.)

(1) A building society shall not advance money on the security of any property which is subject to a prior mortgage unless—

30

(a) the prior mortgage is in favour of the society or of any other building society; or

35

(b) the approval of the Co-operative Building Advisory Committee constituted under this Act to the advance is obtained:

Provided

5 Provided that in either case the amount to be advanced shall not, when added to the sum owing under the prior mortgage (together with any interest or charges then due thereunder) reduced by the value of the share capital of the member, exceed ninety per centum of the value of the property.

10 The value of the share capital of the member shall, for the purposes of this subsection, be calculated in such manner as that Committee may direct.

15 (f) by omitting from subsection one of section thirty-one the words "the district or is of the class specified in the rules and any rule specifying such district or class shall be approved by the Registrar before the society is registered" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "such district or is of such class as may be specified in the rules of the society. Sec. 31. (Loans to members.)"

20 The registrar shall not register such a rule or any alteration of such a rule unless he approves of the district or class specified in the rule or in the rule as altered, as the case may be";

25 (g) by omitting from subsection eight of section 31A the words "a sum to be specified in the rules of the society. Provided that where the sum so specified exceeds one hundred pounds the rule shall be approved by the Registrar before the society is registered" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "such sum as may be specified in the rules of the society: Provided that the registrar shall not register such a rule, or an alteration of such a rule, specifying the sum at a figure exceeding one hundred pounds unless he approves of the sum specified in the rule or in the rule as altered, as the case may be"; Sec. 31A. - 15 (j) (i) by inserting at the end of paragraph (b) of subsection five of section thirty-nine the words "presented to the meeting signed by the chairman and secretary of the meeting";
- (ii) by omitting subsections seven and 7A of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsections:—
- 20 (7) If the registrar is satisfied—
- (a) that the society has complied with the provisions of this Act and the regulations;
- 25 (b) that the proposed rules of the society are not contrary to this Act or the regulations and are such as may reasonably be approved by him;
- 30 (c) that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the society, if registered, will be able to carry out its objects successfully; and
- (d)

---

(d) that there is no reasonable cause why the society and its rules should not be registered, the registrar shall register the society and its rules and shall issue a certificate that the society is incorporated under this Act.

(7A) The registrar may refer any application for registration to the Advisory Council constituted under this Act.

If that Council is of opinion—

15

(a) that in the area in which the applicant society proposes to operate, the functions and services which it is designed to discharge and perform are capable of being discharged and performed by an existing society or societies;

20

(b) that the applicant society is not a bona fide co-operative society; or

(c) that the applicant society is not designed or intended to serve equitably the interests of its members and prospective members, it may recommend that registration be not granted.

Upon receipt of such a recommendation the registrar shall refuse to register the applicant society.

30

The provisions of this subsection have effect notwithstanding anything contained in subsection seven of this section or in any other section of this Act.

 mutatis mutandis and with such modifications,
 if any, as may be prescribed by regulation, extend to any mortgage or charge created or bond issued by a society, not being a mortgage, charge, or incumbrance of specific lands duly registered under the Real Property Act, 1900, or the Registration of Deeds Act, 1897, or of a 10 specific lease, claim or tenement under and subject to the laws relating to mining.

15 For the purposes of that extension, a reference in any of those provisions to the Registrar-General shall be construed as a reference to the registrar of co-operative societies under this Act.

20 (4) The provisions of Part XII of the Companies Act, 1936, as amended by subsequent Acts, shall mutatis mutandis and with such modifications, if any, as may be prescribed by regulation, extend to and in respect of the appointment of a receiver or manager of the property of a society, to and in respect of a receiver or manager so appointed and to and in respect of a society of whose property a receiver or manager has been appointed.

registered";

10 (ii) by inserting next after the same subsection
the following new subsection:—

(4A) The registrar may refer any application under this section to the Advisory Council constituted under this Act.

15 If that Council is of opinion that the alteration would not or is not designed or intended to serve equitably the interests of the members of the society it may recommend that registration be not granted.

20 Upon receipt of such a recommendation the registrar shall refuse to register the alteration.

25 The provisions of this subsection have effect notwithstanding anything contained in subsection four of this section or in any other section of this Act.

30 (v) (i) by omitting from subsection six of section Sec. 84.
eighty-four the words "The directors shall (Board of 30

(2) None of the following persons shall be qualified for appointment or to act as auditor of a society:—

(a) an officer or servant of the society;

(b) a person who is a partner of or in the employment of or the employer of an officer or servant of the society ; and

(c) a body corporate.

5           References in this subsection to an officer or servant shall be construed as not including references to an auditor.

10           (3) Appointment as the public officer of a society for the purposes of any law relating to taxation shall not be a disqualification for appointment as the auditor of a society.

15           (4) The auditors shall make a report to the members on the accounts examined by them and on the register of members and other records which the society is required to keep by law or by its rules, and on every balance-sheet and every profit and loss account laid before the society in general meeting during their tenure of office, and the report shall state—

20           (a) whether they have obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of their knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of their audit;

25           (b) whether, in their opinion, proper books of account have been kept by the society, so far as appears from their examination of those books, and proper returns adequate for the purposes of their audit have been received from branches not visited by them;

30           (c) whether the society's balance-sheet and profit and loss account dealt with by the report are in agreement with the books of account and returns;

- 5 (d) whether, in their opinion, and to the best of their information and according to the explanations given to them, the said accounts give the information required by or under this Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view—
  - 10 (i) in the case of the balance-sheet, of the state of the society's affairs as at the end of its financial year; and
  - (ii) in the case of the profit and loss account, of the profit or loss for its financial year;
- 15 (e) whether, in their opinion, the register of members and other records, which the society is required to keep by or under this Act or by its rules, have been properly kept;
- 20 (f) whether the rules relating to the administration of the funds of the society have been observed;
- 25 (g) whether they are public accountants duly registered under the Public Accountants Registration Act, 1945, as amended by subsequent Acts.

30 (5) Every auditor of a society shall have a right of access at all times to the books, accounts, vouchers, securities and documents of the society, and shall be entitled to require from the directors and other officers of the society such information and explanation as he thinks necessary for the performance of the duties of the auditors.

5 (6) The auditors of a society shall be entitled to attend any general meeting of the society and to receive all notices of and other communications relating to any general meeting which any member of the society is entitled to receive and to be heard at any general meeting which they attend on any part of the business of the meeting which concerns them as auditors.

10 (7) A copy of the balance-sheet and profit and loss account duly audited, together with a copy of the auditors' report to the members of the society, shall be transmitted to each member with the notice of the annual general meeting, or in the alternative, if the rules of the society
15 so provide, the notice of the annual general meeting may include a notice that the balance-sheet and profit and loss account and auditors' report may be inspected by members at the office of the society for such period before the meeting 20 as may be prescribed by the rules.

(8) Subject to the provisions of this subsection, any provision, whether contained in the rules of a society or in any contract with a society or otherwise, for exempting any auditor
25 from, or indemnifying him against, any liability which by virtue of any rule of law would otherwise attach to him in respect of any negligence, default or breach of duty of which he may be guilty in relation to the society shall be void:

30 Provided however that a society may, in pursuance of any such provision, indemnify any auditor against any liability incurred by him in defending any proceedings, whether civil or 35 criminal, in which judgment is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application under subsection nine of this section in which relief is granted to him by the court.

5 (9) (a) If in any proceedings for negligence, default or breach of duty against an auditor of a society it appears to the court hearing the case that that person is or may be liable in respect of the negligence, default or breach of duty, but that he has acted honestly and reasonably, and that, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, including those connected with his appointment, he ought fairly to be excused for the negligence, default or breach of duty, that court may relieve him, either wholly or partly, from his liability on such terms as the court thinks fit.

15 (b) Where any auditor of a society has reason to apprehend that any claim will or might be made against him in respect of any negligence, default or breach of duty, he may apply to the Supreme Court in its equitable jurisdiction for relief, and that Court on any such application shall have the same power to relieve him as under this subsection it would have had if it had been a court before which proceedings against that auditor for negligence, default or breach of duty had been brought.

25 (c) Where any case to which paragraph (a) of this subsection applies is being tried by a judge with a jury, the judge, after hearing the evidence, may, if he is satisfied that the defendant ought in pursuance of that paragraph to be relieved either in whole or in part from the liability sought to be enforced against him, withdraw the case in whole or in part from the jury and forthwith direct judgment to be entered for the defendant on such terms as to costs or otherwise as the judge may think proper.
