

No. , 1917.

A BILL

To amend the Dairies Supervision Act, 1901.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the “Dairies Supervision Short title: (Amendment) Act, 1917.”

2. The Dairies Supervision Act, 1901, is amended in Amendment of s. 6. subsection four of section six by the insertion after the words “which are” of the words “on an unsuitable site or”.

3. The same Act is amended by the repeal of section ^{Repeal of} seventeen and the insertion of the following sections in ^{s. 17.} lieu thereof:—

17. (1) The Governor may, upon the recom- ^{Regulations.} mendation of the Board of Health, make regulations generally to carry out the provisions of this Act, and in particular to secure that milking yards, cow-bails, milk-rooms, and dairy premises be constructed and maintained in a sanitary manner and clean condition, so as to safeguard the purity and cleanliness of the milk produced, and of all utensils and appliances used in connection with the business of a dairyman or milk-vendor, and to provide for the more thorough inspection of cattle on dairy premises.

The Governor may impose a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds in each case for the breach of any such regulation.

(2) Such regulations shall—

- (i) be published in the Gazette;
- (ii) take effect from the date of publication, or from a later date to be specified in such regulations; and
- (iii) be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days after publication if Parliament is in session, and, if not, then within fourteen days after the commencement of the next session. If either House of Parliament passes a resolution at any time within fifteen sitting days after such regulations have been laid before such House disallowing any regulation, such regulation shall therefrom cease to have effect.

18. All penalties imposed by this Act, or the ^{Recovery of} regulations, may be recovered before a stipendiary ^{penalties.} or police magistrate, or any two justices in petty sessions.
