

No. , 1917.

A BILL

To make further provisions with respect to the management of the Government Savings Bank and for extending and regulating its operations; to amend the Government Savings Bank Act, 1906, the Government Savings Bank Amendment Act, 1913, the Savings Banks Amalgamation Act, 1914, and certain other Acts; and for purposes consequent thereon or incidental thereto.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of 5 the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the "Government Savings Bank (Amendment) Act, 1917," and shall be construed with the Government Savings Bank Act, 1906 (hereinafter referred to as the Principal Act), the Government Savings Bank Amendment Act, 1913, the Savings Banks Amalgamation Act, 1914, and the Government Savings Bank Amendment Act, 1916, and shall, except where otherwise provided in the Act, commence and come into force on the date when the Royal assent is given.

Amendment of s. 5 of Principal Act.

2. Section five of the Principal Act, as amended by section thirteen of the Closer Settlement Promotion Act, 1910, is amended by inserting after the words "and includes" in the definition of the term "Crown Lands Acts" the following words: "the Western Lands Act of 1901, the Wentworth Irrigation Act, the Hay Irrigation Act, 1902," and by inserting after the words "Closer Settlement Promotion Act, 1910," the words "Irrigation Act, 1912."

3. Section 38A of the Principal Act as inserted by the Schedule to the Government Savings Bank Amendment Act, 1913, is omitted and the following section substituted therefor:

38A. Accounts may be opened by or on behalf of friendly, charitable, or other societies or institutions (including a trades union or an industrial union of employers or employees, or organizations registered or proclaimed under the Commonwealth Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1904-1915) not carried on for purposes of trade or profit, municipalities and shires; provided that in connection with municipality or shire accounts the limit of deposit shall be one thousand pounds.

4. Section thirty-nine, subsection one, of the Principal Act, as amended by the Schedule to the Government Savings Bank Amendment Act, 1913, is amended as follows:—

Omit paragraph (a), and substitute the following paragraph:—

(a) A friendly, charitable, or other society or institution (including a trades union or an industrial union of employers or employees, employees, or organisations registered or proclaimed under the Commonwealth Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1904-1915), not carried on for purposes of trade or profit.

5

5. Section forty-one, subsection two, of the Principal Act, as amended by the Schedule to the Government Savings Bank Amendment Act, 1913, is omitted, and the following subsection substituted therefor:—

10

(2) The accounts of friendly societies, trades unions, or industrial unions of employers or employees, or organisations registered or proclaimed under the Commonwealth Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1904-1915, in the bank may be drawn upon by cheque in such form and subject to such conditions as the Commissioners may direct.

15

6. Section forty-two of the Principal Act is omitted and the following section substituted therefor:—

Repeal of s. 42 of Principal Act.

20

42. (1) Where the whole amount at credit of a depositor, exclusive of interest, does not at the time of his decease exceed one hundred pounds, and probate of the will of such depositor or letters of administration of his estate and effects is not or are not produced to the Commissioners within such time as they think reasonable, the Commissioners may, without requiring probate of the will or letters of administration of the estate and effects of the deceased depositor, in their discretion, pay or distribute the amount so due as aforesaid, and any interest due thereon, to, or among any of the persons hereinafter described or indicated, that is to say—

Commissioner may in certain cases distribute amount at credit of a depositor at the time of his decease without requiring production of probate, &c.

14. Paragraph (f) of section sixty-eight of the Principal Act as amended by the Schedule to the Government Savings Bank Amendment Act, 1913, is repealed, and the following substituted therefor:—

(f) The amount of any loan (except under section 5 64 and section 68A of this Act) shall be subject to the following limitations:—

(i) Where the security consists of an estate of inheritance in fee simple, or of a conditional purchase in connection with which the first 10 five years certificate has issued (including any additional conditional purchases or associated conditional leases), the loan shall not exceed two-thirds of the sale value of the security.

(ii) In the case of the following tenures under 15 the Crown Lands Acts, that is to say,—

homestead selections,

conditional purchase leases,

special conditional purchase leases,

in connection with which a certificate of 20 conformity or fulfilment of conditions has issued,

homestead farms,

Crown leases,

settlement leases, 25

settlement purchases,

irrigation farm leases,

Wentworth irrigation leases,

Hay irrigation leases,

which have had a currency of five years 30 from the date of confirmation, the maximum amount loanable shall be three-fourths of the value of the interest of the borrower in the improvements on the land, provided that such loan shall not exceed two- 35 thirds of the sale value of the security:

Provided, however, that where half the sale value of the security exceeds three-fourths of the value of the interest of the borrower in the improvements advances may 40 be made up to half the sale value of the security. (iii)

- (iii) In the case of the following tenures under the Crown Lands Acts, that is to say—
- homestead selections,
 - conditional purchase leases,
 - special conditional purchase leases,
 - conditional purchases (with or without additional conditional purchases or associated conditional leases),
- in connection with which a certificate of conformity or fulfilment of conditions has not issued,
- homestead farms,
 - Crown leases,
 - settlement leases,
 - settlement purchases,
 - irrigation farm leases,
 - Wentworth irrigation leases,
 - Hay irrigation leases,
- which have not had a currency of five years from the date of confirmation, the maximum amount loanable shall be three-fourths of the value of the interest of the borrower in the improvements on the land, provided that such loan does not exceed two-thirds of the sale value of the security.
- (iv) In the case of Western lands leases (whether they have or have not had a currency of five years from the date of confirmation) and homestead leases the maximum sum loanable shall be one-half of the estimated sale value of the security, subject, however, to the limitations imposed by section eleven of this Act.

15. (1) The following new sections are inserted after section sixty-eight of the Principal Act :—

- 68A. In order to assist holders to establish themselves on their holdings of the following tenures under the Crown Lands Acts, that is to say—
- homestead selections,
 - conditional purchase leases,
 - special conditional purchase leases,
 - conditional

Commissioners empowered to make certain advances.

- conditional purchases (with or without additional conditional purchases or associated conditional leases),
 in connection with which a certificate of conformity or fulfilment of conditions has not issued, 5
 homestead farms,
 Crown leases,
 settlement leases,
 settlement purchases,
 irrigation farm leases, 10
 Wentworth irrigation leases,
 Hay irrigation leases,
 which have not had a currency of five years from the date of confirmation, the Commissioners may make advances up to the 15
 full value of the interest of the borrower in the improvements effected or proposed to be made, and in connection with these advances the following conditions shall apply:—
- (a) The maximum sum loanable on such full 20 value basis shall be four hundred pounds.
 - (b) After the maximum advance on the full value basis has been made, the Commissioners may make further advances on the basis of one-half of the interest of the 25 borrower in the value of further improvements effected, or proposed to be made, until the total amount advanced reaches three-fourths of the value of the improvements when any further advances shall be 30 made on the basis of three-fourths of the interest of the borrower in the value of the improvements on the land, provided that the total amount of all the advances shall not exceed two-thirds of the sale value of 35 security.
 - (c) Advances on full value basis of improvements shall only be made on such improvements as, in the opinion of the Commissioners, are required for the profitable 40 occupation of the security by any holder.
- (d)

- 5
- (d) The purposes for which advances under this section may be made shall be specified by the Commissioners.
- (e) Advances may be made by instalments as the work proceeds, but in such cases the payments shall be subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by regulation as well as those set out in the mortgage.
- 10
- (f) Where an advance is made by instalments and the borrower, in the opinion of the Commissioners, has failed or neglected to complete the improvements in accordance with the terms and purposes specified, the Commissioners may forthwith take possession of the holding included in the security and complete the improvements and such other improvements as they consider necessary.
- 15
- All costs and expenses thereby occasioned to the Commissioners shall be deemed to be included in any mortgage or other security given by the borrower, and shall be added to the debt, and may be recovered from the borrower, with interest at a rate of one per centum per annum higher than the rate named in the mortgage or other security.
- 20
- (g) If at any time in the opinion of the Commissioners any money advanced under this section has not been applied to the purpose for which it was advanced, or has not been carefully and economically expended, the Commissioners may refuse to pay any further instalments of the proposed advance, and may at once call in the whole amount already advanced, together with all costs and expenses incurred in connection therewith, whereupon the borrower shall forthwith repay the same.
- 25
- 30
- 35
- 40
- (h) Upon default being made by the borrower under this section, either in the use of funds
- 55—B

funds advanced by instalments or under the mortgage, the Commissioners shall have all the powers conferred upon them under Division 2 of Part VI and Part VII of the Principal Act, as amended by the Government Savings Bank Amendment Act, 1913, in addition to those provided by the mortgage deed and the regulations. 5

- (i) Except as otherwise in this Act provided, loans made under this section shall be subject in all other respects to Parts VI and VII of the Principal Act as amended by the Government Savings Bank Amendment Act, 1913, and by the Savings Banks Amalgamation Act, 1914. 10 15

Boundary fencing not to be considered by Commissioners when valuing for purposes of an advance.

68B. Where holders of homestead farms or of Crown leases granted under sections 119, 130A, or 131 of the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, as amended by the Crown Lands Amendment Act, 1916, are allowed to effect improvements on their holdings in lieu of payment of rent, the value of any boundary fencing that may be included in such improvements shall not be considered by the Commissioners when valuing the subject holding for the purposes of an advance under this Act. 20 25

(2) The provisions of this section so far as the insertion of new section 68A in the Principal Act is concerned shall come into force on a date to be proclaimed by the Governor, and published in the Gazette.

Amendment of s. 69.

16. Section sixty-nine of the Principal Act, as amended by the Schedule to the Government Savings Bank Amendment Act, 1913, is amended as follows:— 30

- (a) Where such land is held under the Crown Lands Acts, and has become forfeited for non-compliance with conditions under those Acts, it shall thereupon vest in the Commissioners, and may be sold by them to any person, who shall hold the same subject to any conditions prescribed by the Crown Lands 35 40

Lands Acts binding upon the former holder, but free from any liability for any breach before such sale of any such conditions; and the purchaser shall have six months from the time of sale for complying with any unfulfilled improvement conditions in relation to the land.

10

The proceeds of such sale shall be applied in the following order:—

15

- (i) In payment of any outstanding moneys due under the Crown Lands Acts at the date of forfeiture not exceeding one year's rent or instalments (as the case may be).
- (ii) In liquidation of the claims of the Commissioners.
- (iii) Towards meeting any further outstanding Crown dues.
- (iv) Any balance remaining thereafter to be paid into the Treasury to the credit of the Consolidated Revenue.

20

Where the proceeds of any sale by the Commissioners is not sufficient to pay the bank's debt and the Crown dues outstanding at date of forfeiture in full the balance of any such Crown dues shall be made a charge upon the Consolidated Revenue.

In the event of the Commissioners failing to find a purchaser within twelve months, or within such less period as they may determine and so notify to the Secretary for Lands, or in the case of Western lands leases or homestead leases notify the Western Land Board, or in the case of irrigation farm leases, Wentworth, or Hay irrigation leases, notify the Water Conservation and Irrigation Commission, the land may be disposed of as Crown lands under the Crown Lands Acts.

35
