

[CONFIDENTIAL]

(Rough Draft for Consideration Only.)

No. , 1934.

---

---

A BILL

To amend the Married Women (Lecturers and Teachers) Act, 1932, in certain respects; and for purposes connected therewith.

---

---

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Married Women Short title. (Lecturers and Teachers) Amendment Act, 1934."

Married Women (Lecturers and Teachers) Amendment.

(2) The Married Women (Lecturers and Teachers) Act, 1932, as amended by this Act may be cited as the Married Women (Lecturers and Teachers) Act, 1932-1934.

2. The Married Women (Lecturers and Teachers) Act, 1932, is amended— Amendment of Act No. 28, 1932.

(a) (i) by inserting at the end of subsection two of section two the following words:— Sec. 2. (Employment on certificate of Public Service Board.)
“ The Board may also from time to time certify in respect of any married woman whose services have been retained pursuant to subsection three of this section and during any period for which a certificate under that subsection is effective that there are special circumstances which make her employment for a period or an additional period specified in the certificate given pursuant to this subsection desirable in the public interest, in which case her employment shall be continued for the period specified in any certificate or further certificate given pursuant to this subsection.”

(ii) by inserting in subsection three of the same section after the words “ by the officer or employee concerned ” the words “ after such investigation or enquiry as the Board may deem necessary ”;

(iii) by inserting at the end of the same subsection the words “ The Board may certify pursuant to this subsection in the case of a married woman as to whom the Board has certified pursuant to subsection two of this section that her appointment, employment, or retention of her services as lecturer or teacher is desirable in the public interest: Provided always that any such certificate under this subsection shall be given during any period specified in a certificate or further certificate given under subsection two of this section and provided further that that the appointment or employment of the officer or employee shall not have been terminated during any such period”;

Married Women (Lecturers and Teachers) Amendment.

- (b) by inserting at the end of section four the following subsection:—

Sec. 4
(Super-annuation and leave.)

(3) Subsection one of this section shall not extend to or in respect of the termination, on account of her marriage, after the commencement of the Married Women (Lecturers and Teachers) Amendment Act, 1934, of the office or employment of any officer or employee where such office or employment is terminated by or under section three of this Act.

In the case of such a termination of office or employment under that section the following provisions shall have effect—

- (a) the termination shall for the purposes of the Superannuation Act, 1916-1930, be deemed to be—

- (i) “retirement” if the contributor concerned has attained the age at which her right to retire has accrued;
- (ii) “resignation” if the contributor concerned has not attained such age;

- (b) for the purposes of section seventy-one of the Public Service Act, 1902, the termination shall be deemed to be retirement.