

Newcastle District Abattoir and Sale-yards (Amendment) Bill, 1935.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THE main object of this bill is to take away from the Newcastle District Abattoir Board the power to purchase cattle and meat and the power to sell on its own behalf cattle and meat, including bacon, ham, sausages, saveloys and other smallgoods manufactured or prepared from a carcass or any portion thereof, leaving it with the power to sell such cattle and meat on behalf of other persons, and with the power to sell merchantable articles manufactured by the Board from offal in the abattoir.

The opportunity is also taken to bring the section relating to by-laws in line with the more modern form usually adopted.
