

No. , 1898.

A BILL

To extend the time for polling at Parliamentary Elections.

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. Section seventy-nine of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act of 1893 (56 Vic. No. 38) is hereby repealed, and in lieu thereof it is enacted that every polling shall commence on the day appointed for the same at eight o'clock in the forenoon, and shall, unless lawfully adjourned, finally close at six o'clock in the afternoon of the same day.

2. This Act may be cited as the "Parliamentary Elections (Polling) Act, 1898." Hours of polling at parliamentary elections. Short title.
