Pawnbrokers and Second-hand Dealers and Collectors (Amendment) Bill.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THE object of this Bill is to bring the law up to date in respect of Pawnbrokers and Second-hand Dealers and Collectors.

The main amendments to the existing law are as follows:----

- (1) The Officer-in-Charge of Police nearest to the premises at which a person proposes to carry on the business of a pawnbroker is to be advised by the Clerk of Petty Sessions of the receipt of an application for a pawnbroker's license by such person, and may show cause against the granting of such application.
- (2) Returns are to be furnished to the Police of all articles taken in pawn each day on which a pawnbroker exercises or carries on his trade or business.
- (3) Articles are not to be taken in pawn from children under 16 years of age.
- (4) Police officers of or above the rank of sergeant are empowered to enter pawnshops during business hours and examine the pawnbroker's pledge book and any pledges recorded therein.
- (5) The definition of "old wares" in the Second-hand Dealers and Collectors Act, 1906, has been extended.
- (6) Provision for a return of old wares purchased by a second-hand dealer to be forwarded to the police.
- (7) Provision for the issue of collectors' licenses to persons residing in other States who carry on the business of collectors in New South Wales.
