

201

[CONFIDENTIAL.]
(Rough Draft for Consideration Only.)

No. , 1926.

A B I L L

To make further provision for the determination of the remuneration, grades, and classification of certain public servants; to alter the constitution of the tribunal appointed under section eleven of the Public Service Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, and to provide for the representation of public servants thereon; to further amend the said Act; and for purposes connected therewith.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Public Service Short title. (Amendment) Act, 1926," and shall be read with the Public Service Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts.

Public Service (Amendment).

(2) The Public Service Act, 1902, as so amended is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2. The Principal Act is amended as follows:—

Amendment of Act 1902
No. , s. 11.

(a) (i) by omitting from subsection three of section eleven the words "The Governor may appoint a District Court judge to sit with two members of the board" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "There shall be a tribunal";

(Public Service tribunal.)

(ii) by omitting from the same subsection the words "so constituted";

(b) by adding at the end of section eleven the following new subsections:—

(5) The tribunal shall be constituted as follows:—by a District Court judge appointed by the Governor sitting with two members, one of whom shall be a representative of the employees of the division to which the employee appealing belongs or would belong if he were an officer, and the other a member of the Public Service Board selected by the chairman of that board to sit in any particular appeal.

In the absence of the member so selected any other member of that board may sit and act upon the tribunal.

(6) From three officers elected in the prescribed manner for each division mentioned in section 14B the Governor may appoint the representative of the division and also appoint a deputy representative to sit and act upon the tribunal in the absence from any cause of the representative.

(7) The representative or deputy representative of the employees shall not sit on any appeal from the decision of a salaries committee of which he was a member.

