BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows —

1. This Act may be cited as the "Public Service Short title. Superannuation Allowances (Limitation) Act, 1914."

Public Service Superannuation Allowances (Limitation).

2. (1) Any officer of the Public Service who, under any Act relating to the Public Service, is entitled to a superannuation allowance, shall not be deemed to be or to have been entitled to such allowance for any time during which he is, or has been in the employ of the State of New South Wales or of the Commonwealth of Australia :

Officers to be entitled to superannuation allowances only when not in Service.

Provided that the Governor may make any agreement with any such officer relating to such allowance as appears to him best for the Public Service.

(2) This Act shall take effect retrospectively, but shall not apply to any such allowance already paid.
