

197

No. , 1912.

A BILL

To regulate Sunday trading in certain shops; and for that purpose to amend certain Acts.

[MR. BEEBY;— October, 1912.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

5 1. This Act may be cited as the "Sunday Trading (Refreshment Room) Act, 1912." It shall commence and take effect on and from the day of Short title.

10 2. Notwithstanding anything contained in any Act of prior date, it shall be allowable for any shop described in Schedule One, and situated in any locality described or mentioned in Schedule Two, to be open for the sale of the articles and commodities or other things named in Schedule Three on Sundays during and within the following hours:—

Certain shops may be opened for the sale of certain articles during certain hours.

15 Seven and ten in the morning, one and seven in the afternoon, half-past eight and ten in the evening :

18—(2)

Provided

Provided that any articles, commodities, and things named in Part I of Schedule Three must be sold to be consumed on the premises of the vendor.

Governor may extend provisions.

3. The Governor may, on the requisition of the council of any municipality or shire, by proclamation in the Gazette, extend the provisions of this Act to any locality mentioned in such proclamation, and for that purpose may amend Schedule Two. 5

Penalty.

4. Any person who on any Sunday—

(a) at other than the above prescribed hours and places opens, or keeps open to the public for purposes of trade any such shop, or offers for sale therein any article, commodity, or thing; or 10

(b) sells in any such shop during such prescribed hours any article, commodity, or thing not authorised to be sold under this Act; or

(c) sells in any such shop any article, commodity, or thing named 15
in Part I of Schedule Three to be consumed otherwise than on the premises of the vendor, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding pounds, or to be imprisoned for a period not exceeding years.

Recovery of penalties.

5. Penalties under this Act may be imposed by a stipendiary 20 or police magistrate, or any two justices of the peace in petty sessions.

SCHEDULES.

SCHEDULE ONE.

Restaurants or dining rooms.
Refreshment or tea rooms.	25
Confectioners' or lolly shops.
Fruiterers' shops.
Pastrycooks or bakers, for the sale of bread in various forms, cakes or biscuits.
Shops for the sale of temperance or non-alcoholic drinks.
Ice-cream shops.	30
Milk shops
Fish and oyster shops, or saloons, for the sale of fish (cooked) and oysters.
Any shop in combination of any of the above.

SCHEDULE TWO.

- (1.) All picnic grounds, parks, recreation reserves, and sea beaches within twenty 35 miles of the General Post Office, Sydney, which may be proclaimed under this Act.
- (2.) All picnic grounds, parks, and recreation reserves within miles of any town, provided such town is proclaimed under this Act.
- (3.) The Circular Quay and any wharf or place which may be proclaimed under this Act. 40

SCHEDULE THREE.

PART I.

Meals.

Tea, coffee, cocoa, chocolate, or other similar drinks.

5

Ice-cream.

Bread in various forms, pastry, cakes, or biscuits.

Cooked fish.

Oysters.

PART II.

10

Milk.

Confectionery.

Fruit of all kinds.

Temperance or non-alcoholic drinks.
