LOTTERIES AND ART UNIONS ACT 1901—REGULATION

(Relating to repeal of requirements for prescribed forms)

NEW SOUTH WALES

[Published in Gazette No. 54 of 5 April 1991]

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, and in pursuance of the Lotteries and Art Unions Act 1901, has been pleased to make the Regulation set forth hereunder.

I. R. CAUSLEY
Chief Secretary.

Commencement

1. This Regulation commences on 5th April, 1991.

Amendments

2. The Lotteries and Games of Chance Regulations 1966 are amended:
 - (a) by omitting from Regulation 3 (1) the words "or to the effect of Form 3" and by inserting instead the words "a form approved by the Minister";
 - (b) by omitting Regulation 3 (2);
 - (c) by omitting from Regulation 5 the words "in or to the effect of Form 5 to these Regulations" and by inserting instead the words "specifying the circumstances of an unusual nature which arose in connection with the conduct of the lottery";
 - (d) by omitting from Regulation 6 the words "in or to the effect of Form 6 to these Regulations" and by inserting instead the words "specifying the circumstances of an unusual nature which arose in connection with the conduct of the game of chance";
 - (e) by omitting from Regulation 7 (1) the words "or to the effect of Form 7" and by inserting instead the words "a form approved by the Minister";

1991—No. 170

- (f) by omitting Regulation 7 (2);
- (g) by omitting from Regulation 9 (1) the words "or to the effect of Form 9" and by inserting instead the words "a form approved by the Minister";
- (h) by omitting Regulation 9 (2);
- (i) by omitting Forms 3–10.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The object of this Regulation is to amend the Lotteries and Games of Chance Regulations 1966 so as:

- (a) to repeal references to prescribed forms; and
 - (b) to require that specified information be provided with applications for a reduction in the amount to be paid to a charity or non-profit organisation on behalf of which a lottery or game of chance is conducted; and
 - (c) in relation to applications to the Minister for permits, to require that written applications be in a form approved by the Minister.
