

1991—No. 201

ESSENTIAL SERVICES ACT 1988—ORDER DECLARING
PROVISION OF FUNERAL, BURIAL OR CREMATION
SERVICES TO BE AN ESSENTIAL SERVICE

NEW SOUTH WALES

[Published in Gazette No. 59 of 19 April 1991]

(L.S.) P. R. SINCLAIR, Governor.

I, Rear Admiral PETER ROSS SINCLAIR, Governor of the State of New South Wales, with the advice of the Executive Council, on the certification of the Premier that the following service is essential in the public interest, and in pursuance of section 4 of the Essential Services Act 1988, do, by this my Order, declare the provision of funeral, burial or cremation services (including the handling, transportation, interment and cremation of corpses and the manufacture and maintenance of coffins and crematorium equipment) to be an essential service for the purposes of the Essential Services Act 1988.

Dated at Sydney, this 17th day of April, 1991.

By His Excellency's Command,

NICK GREINER
Premier.
