EXPLANATORY NOTE

The object of this Regulation is to ensure that contributors transferred from the State Public Service Superannuation Scheme to the State Authorities Superannuation Scheme will receive full recognition for entitlements accrued under the former Scheme when they finally become entitled to receive their retirement benefits under the State Authorities Superannuation Scheme. A retirement benefit under the latter Scheme is calculated on the basis of a contributor's "accrued benefit points" as defined in section 36 of the State Authorities Superannuation Act 1987 but clause 8 (1) of the State Authorities Superannuation (State Public Service Superannuation Scheme Transfer) Regulation 1989 (which modifies that definition in relation to a transferred contributor) does not, as it now stands, properly reflect those accrued entitlements.

Clause 2 (3) of Schedule 4 to the State Authorities Superannuation Act 1987 authorises this Regulation to have retrospective effect and thus enables this Regulation to be taken to have commenced on 1 April 1989, the date on which the Principal Regulation commenced.
