FACTORIES, SHOPS AND INDUSTRIES ACT 1962—REGULATION

(Relating to wheeled tractors)

NEW SOUTH WALES

[Published in Gazette No. 116 of 16 August 1991]

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, and in pursuance of the Factories, Shops and Industries Act 1962, has been pleased to make the Regulation set forth hereunder.

JOHN FAHEY

Minister for Industrial Relations, and Minister for Further Education, Training and Employment.

Commencement

1. This Regulation commences on 1st September, 1991.

Amendments

2. The Local Government Industries (Machine Safety) Regulation is amended:

- (a) by omitting from clause 7 (2) (b) the following words:

Australian Standard No. 1636-1974 entitled “Protective Frames for Agricultural Wheeled Tractors” and by inserting instead the following words:

Australian Standard 1636-1984 entitled “Agricultural Wheeled Tractors—Roll-over Protective Structures—Criteria and Tests”;

- (b) by omitting clause 7 (3) (a) and by inserting instead the following paragraph:

- (a) a tractor weighing less than 560kg or more than 15 000kg, the weight of the tractor being that at which the tractor in any form is normally available for retail sale when new and with a full fuel tank and maximum quantities of coolant and lubricating oil; or

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The object of this Regulation is to amend the Local Government Industries (Machine Safety) Regulation:

- (a) to update a reference to an Australian Standard relating to wheeled tractors; and
 - (b) to increase the weight above which wheeled tractors will be exempt from the obligation to be fitted with a protective cab or frame.
